

CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE

Dear Policyholder,

In today's business world it's common for people you do business with to require proof that you have insurance. They can include your landlord, your customers, financial institutions, etc.

Proof of insurance is usually in the form of a "Certificate of Insurance." When a certificate of insurance is required, the current process is to contact your Federated Insurance Customer Service Representative or Risk Services Coordinator and we will issue the certificate of insurance to your specific business partner.

To make it easier for you, we are including a copy of a generic certificate of insurance addressed to "To Whom It May Concern." This certificate of insurance provides proof of insurance as of the date shown on the certificate and a copy can be provided to the company requesting proof of insurance.

This streamlined process will not work in all cases. You will have business partners with requirements exceeding those included in the attached generic certificate. For example, they might want to be listed as a certificate holder, be notified if your policies are cancelled, or want special provisions included on the certificate of insurance. For those situations where your business partner will not accept this generic certificate of insurance, contact your Federated Insurance Customer Service Representative or Risk Services Coordinator and we will issue the certificate of insurance on your behalf.

If you have any questions, please contact your Customer Service Representative or Risk Services Coordinator.

Sincerely,

FEDERATED INSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA
